

Social media & communications sessions for Student Athlete Advisory Committees

For the past 15 years, The Speaking Specialists have conducted programs for conference and universities SAACs. These interactive programs feature handling social and 21st century media, communications and speech techniques and team building. Participants take these valuable lessons back to their respective schools and teams and become teachers themselves.

